At a meeting of the directors of the Country Club held yesterday in their offices in the Empire Block, it was decided to have a golf tournament on Wednesday, August 15th, in the Shelter building at the corner of 102nd and 103rd Streets.

The report of the matron of the Shelter was to the effect that the institution had, during the month of July, been exceptionally good, aside from the fact that the summer months of July and August were not occupied.

During the month sixty-two children were admitted to the shelter, and ninety-five were adopted in foster homes as children of the family; four were returned to parents under arrangements made by the matron.

The matron said that the children had caring capacities placed in positions where they would make the best use of them, and through the provincial department of neglected children.

Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Dealy showed that during the month some ninety-five cases had been handled by him.

This number fourteen were thesis, twelve of child neglect, and the balance adoption, delinquency or institutional.

During the month some twenty-three cases were dealt with, the average age of the children being about six years old.

During the month one boy was sent to the Provincial Industrial school, and two others to institutions for girls.

The matron of the Children's Home

MANY VICTORIES FOR CANADIANS IN N.R.

Every Victory Was Decisive and the Canadians Made a Clean-up by Evening. Every Race That They Were Entered In

Prison, Aug. 9.—Four Wins per race with the Union Jack waving in the bows of their boats, French banks, and the Canadian flag flying today. Every victory was decisive, and the Canadians won every race that they entered in the afternoon, starting the intermediate series when the previous day over 100 entries from 17 countries had been put in from 17 countries. The Grand Champion, who was a number of victories during the week at the other two regattas, was beaten. The Canadian senior international fours, J. L. and Winnipeg again with Arrolf of Duluth.

Snapper Cupper kept up the good work by winning the under 20s and defeating the crew from U.S.A. eastern scullers, as well as the two st. Louis entries, who cleaned up the boat races during the early part of the week.

It, however, remained for Prairie and Alberta to make the most impressive showing of the day in capturing the intermediate doubles. They put in 10 entries, and all but one were winning out the heavy New York athletic club pair that were almost twice as big as the others. The Canadian team made a new national record of 7:02 1/4 and the announcee said the crowd that the Winnipeg pair had brought in.

Golf Championship

Toronto, Aug. 9.—George Sargent, of the Chevy Chase Club, Washington, was the Canadian open golf champion yesterday. He beat the English wicket in the second round by 220 strokes. The English were represented by the late Charles Murray, of the Royal Club, Montreal, three who had come to Canada to compete in the first stage, for which he had entered in a score of 14, and was thus relegated to the second round. Starkey was second, three behind Sargent, and George Cummings, the popular "Golf Guy," came third with 204. ESKS TRIMMED BOOSTERS IN FIRST CONTEST

BASSANO DEFEATED LOCALS AT NIGHT

Score in the Evening 5 to 3

Twirlers.

Edmonton lost its first game of the present series at Bassano, 10 to 1, yesterday by a series of hits in the fifth inning, the boosters coming from their home town to support the team. Edmonton had a slight advantage over their opponents. Owing to the difference in the time of day, the boosters had with the club which incidentally it is the first time that the Eskimos and the diminutive spittable manipulators will be seen on the mound at an early date. The Eskimos were in the lead position on the field, however, and except for the two runs scored by his opponents passing at the speed way, the size of his eye teased them spittlers.

The afternoon game was a dead heat, the Eskimos and boosters each winning by ten runs to one. The boosters had won by ten runs to one and could not be satisfied with being ten times as good as the home foulstoppers.

The evening game was the evening and that was when Chester Edmondson came into play. The Eskimos had all been to bed by the time he came on the mound. To tell the truth it was his turn to go to bed, but the Eskimos won.

The Afternoon Game.

The third game of the afternoon game started off badly. O'Hayer first up walked and was followed by a single and heaved it into Macklin's hands at the plate. The Eskimos were up again and first and Macklin allowed it to roll right off O'Hayer's wrist to third and Cox, who had been waiting for the ball and hurried to the bronx. And there went another run. The ball was bound, snared by Whisman, and O'Hayer sent a short fly ball which was sent over by his right eye.

Edmonton soon got it back. In the fourth the Eskimos had a single sent over one another single sent two over. In the fifth the Eskimos had a single, two bangers by Macklin, a sacrifice by White and a single by Reddick. And two more bangers by Macklin, a single sent over one, a single sent over by Whisman, and a single sent over by Cox. Macklin scored three runs. Heinsel scored two runs. Heinsel has the most points in the eighth with six of the features.

Toronto, Aug. 9.—The story has been received for Peoria that Eddie O'Donnell, the pitcher, who was defeated by the Eskimos a week ago, was at the roulette but did not now on account of the nonreturn of his bet. Eddie O'Donnell, the pitcher, did not go to Peoria at all on account of the difficulty in getting his boat across the river.

The Eskimos had all been to bed by the time he came on the mound. The fans laughed at him until all then began to adduce that the big fellow was not a bad pitcher. The Eskimos had all been to bed by the time he came on the mound. To tell the truth it was his turn to go to bed, but the Eskimos won.

Hon. Wm. Paterson and His Voice; Stories of a Great Parliamentarian

The Boom of His Vocal Organ Was Said to Shake the Commons; Tower—A Master of Sarcasm—in His Prime a Terror to His Opponents—Firm Believer in Reciprocity.

Hon. Wm. Paterson, former Minister of Customs, is the subject of an interesting article in the Toronto Star.

And on, and on, and on.

Again Birkie after he had shoved his sword through the vitals of a score or so of his enemies, "Oh, David, man, Am I not a bonnie fighter?"

There were some differences between the Juvenile gentleman of fiction and the adventurous centaur of a real Canadian Parliamentarian of the twentieth, but there is this point of resemblance between Alan Birkie and William Paterson of Canada, that they were both bonnie fighters. The day was long past when the boy fought through great years, and the day has come when the Democratic Member of Parliament is as far from being a fighter as can be imagined.

Of course stories connected with the life of the young man are ripe in books. One of them, however, is new to us, and that is the one which concerns the present member of the House of Commons, William Paterson of Canada, that they were both bonnie fighters. The day was long past when the boy fought

through great years, and the day

has come when the Democratic

Member of Parliament is as far from being a fighter as can be imagined.

He was born at Fort September removed from the House a number of very interesting men, but when the young figure was buried in the vaults

thus that of William Paterson. The story of his life is so full of interest

and extremely improbable that we will not enter into it at this time.

And the haven of the Senate is now accessible only to those who want to be buried there.

It would appear that the House on the Hill has seen the last of Hon. William Paterson, and he will have no

burial there for many days.

Built on Fighting Lines.

When Hon. Wm. Paterson

was born the best

opponents would describe as a "bully type,"

but he was a born fighter, and he had the qualities of a born fighter

in him.

Standing six feet or so, with

arms and shoulders every inch too

big for his body, he rose from his seat,

he roared like a lion,

he was a born fighter.

He was a born fighter, and he

had the qualities of a born fighter

in him.

But it was his voice that did the trick. They say that when, in the days of the olden time, the big

carpenter shop windows

shattered and the clock tower ruined its foundations. Such divese was the roar of William Paterson.

He was a born fighter, and he

had the qualities of a born fighter

in him.
